"The Ottawa Spotlight"

(By Wilfrid Eggleston)

OTTAWA—Prime Minister Mackenzie King will himself head Canada's delegation to the League of Nations conference at Geneva next September because of the critical situation in Europe and the expected revision of the league covenant. He plans also to attend His Majesty's coronation in London next May, so he will not attend the unveiling by King Edward VIII of Canada's war memorial at Vimy Ridge on July 26 next. At the ceremony, the official government representatives will be Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice; Hon. J. H. Macdonald, minister of national defence, and Hon. C. G. Power, minister of pensions and national health.

Sir Herbert Macphail, Canadian minister at Tokyo, for the past seven years, has been promoted and transferred to a similar post at Washington in place of Major W. H. Herried, brother-in-law of Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, who resigned shortly after the election. Hon. Randolph Bruce, former Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia, an unsuccessful candidate against Hon. H. H. Stevens, Reconstruction leader, in East Kootenay, B.C. in the federal election last October, is the new minister to Japan.

Already 8,659 single unemployed men formerly accommodated in the federal government camps are at work on the C.N.R. and C.P.R. on a special maintenance of way improvement program as subsidized by the Dominion government. From Ontario 2,508 men were sent to work, 620 from Manitoba, 912 from Saskatchewan, 854 from Alberta and 678 from British Columbia. The camps will all be closed this week.

In May Canadian tourists brought in $190,172 of goods under the $100 duty free exemption clause, mostly automobile accessories, boots and shoes and clothing.

Justice W. P. A. Turgeon of Sask. now completing his work as a one-man royal commission into the textile industry, is to undertake a similar task into all phases of Canada's wheat marketing problems. On a previous occasion Justice Turgeon made an excellent report on that phase of the problem having to do with the physical handling of wheat. He will visit the United Kingdom and visit European countries, and possibly also the Argentine and Australia as Johnny Van Weel is receiving the warm congratulations of his friends in his success in the Chuck Wagon race Tuesday. He broke the world's record making the course in 1:12:26. Unfortunately Wednesday's result did not turn out the same. Through some unfortunate mishap, another rider collided with one of his lead horses while making the top. The horse's leg was broken, it being completely severed and the poor animal had to be shot at once. Poor marksmanship required two shots to be made before the suffering horse succumbed. It was Johnny's best lead horse and he feels keenly the unfortunate accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Keeler were presented with a beautiful red velvet chair containing a blotter from their thirteen children. They also received a spiritual bouquet from the family. Rev. Father Cosman congratulated them on reaching their twenty-fifth anniversary and Mr. Keeler replied, thanking everyone for their kind wishes and gifts.

NEWSPAPERS BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM

General R. E. Wool, President of Sears, Roebuck & Co. recently announced that his company will spend $200,000 for newspaper advertising in 1936. The advertising campaign, which will include all newspapers in 41 states, grew out of the company's experiments with almost every type of selling medium since the opening of its first store eleven years ago, according to G. W. Cunningham, advertising manager. Results have demonstrated to us that the newspaper is by far the most effective medium for the promotion of our retail sales," Mr. Cunningham said.

WEDDINGS

MORAN - THORNDALE

Trail, B. C.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Thorndale, Oak street, was colorfully decorated with iris and carnations for the wedding at 3:30 yesterday afternoon of their second daughter, Frances Mary, to Michael Alexander Moran of Trail, eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. N. Moran of Strathmore, Alta. Rev. L. A. Morratt officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was daintily gown in a jacket model of pale blue silk organza. The skirt was fully draped and the fitted jacket set edged with fine accordion pleating and belted at the waist. The short puffed sleeves were finished with a tight band and pink gloves trimmed the front neckline. A band of orange blossoms and white accessories completed her attractive attire and she carried a bride's bouquet of pastel pink carnations and maidenhair fern.

Miss Dorothy Walley, as bridesmaid, chose an exquisite frock of pale pink chiffon, with floor length flared skirt and bloused jacket featuring three-quarter length and fitted collar. Her white tulle was worn with white and her accessories were white. Deep pink tulips formed her bouquet.

Miss Thompson attended the guests.

Wedding breakfast was served to immediate friends and relatives following the ceremony, the principals being assisted by Mrs. Thorndale in receiving the guests. The bride's table was effectively appointed, the three-tiered wedding cake in the centre being flanked with vases of pink tulips.

Returning from a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Moran will make their home on Daniel street.

Minimum Wheat Price

The Alberta Wheat Pool invites the cooperation of all organized bodies and all interested individuals in impressing upon the Federal Government and the people of all Canada the importance of fixing a minimum price for wheat above the average cost of production.

This can best be done by resolutions passed by boards of trade, municipal councils and other similar organizations, or letters to members of parliament.

ALBERTA WHEAT POOL

GOOD MINIMUM PRICE NEEDED

The setting of a fair minimum price for wheat by the Wheat Board is a matter of primary importance to Alberta and Western Canada. The Alberta Wheat Pool invites the cooperation of all organized bodies who are interested in seeing this desired result brought about. It is also important that the Federal Government be impressed with the need for the continuation of the Wheat Board.

The experience of 1935-36 crop year shows that the setting of a reasonable minimum price provided a measure of protection for the wheat growers that could have been obtained in no other way. The Alberta Wheat Pool contends that the losses, if any, entailed are trivial as compared with the advantages gained by providing purchasing power for the farmers of the West. A drive to bring about lower wheat prices was frustrated by the Wheat Pool in co-

ADVERTISING

Tell me not in mournful numbers
 Advertising doesn't pay;
 For the man's "son of-a-bitch" motto
 Who would such about things say.
 Life is real, life is earnest
 And the man who hopes to rise
 To success in any calling
 Must expect to advertise.
 In this world's broad field of battle
 In the conflict of real life,
 Advertising is the sword.
 Of achievement in the strife.
 Lives of rich men all remind us
 We can make our lives sublime.
 And by liberal advertising
 To the highest summit climb.

 has changed somewhat and prospects appear brighter for improved prices

Without Fear Or Favor...

"I WILL hew to the line of right, let the chips fly where they may." It takes a stout heart to adopt this principle of General Grant's, yet it is the everyday matter-of-course attitude of a good newspaper. No matter whose head rolls in the dust, the truth must be told. No matter what storms of protest and vituperation it brings about its ears, your newspaper prints the news as and where it is found, faithfully and accurately. No malpractice to the public injury is hidden or condoned; no improper policy goes unchallenged. Because the newspaper is the forum and the voice of public opinion. It is the moving picture of daily life where all may see and all may judge freely and independently.

"THE truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." As conscientiously as though it were under oath your newspaper gives the plain unvarnished facts. Disagree with its editorials if you will—you have a right to your own opinions—but in the news columns you will find only the news, candid and impartial, on which to base your own judgments.

PRESERVE THE INTEREST AND THE VOICE YOU HAVE IN AFFAIRS AND IN YOUR OWN GOVERN-MENT BY READING, AND, AT WILL, USING THE FREE IMPARTIAL COLUMNS OF YOUR NEWSPAPER.
